New Classes

Yesterday staff spent a long-time organising classes for next year. As we are a 1.5 form entry, there is always some movement and mixing up of children. We take into account a wide variety of information and make decisions based on this. Your child will find out which class they are going to be in, and who their teacher is, on Wednesday 2nd July. They will then spend the morning of 3rd July in their new class. The whole process of reorganising classes is very complex and, if I'm honest, very stressful. Some people may not be happy with the decisions I have made, please know they have been made with the most positive of intentions. Please be positive with your child if, when they tell you their class, they are unhappy. Please do not tell them you will get it changed as this will not happen. Instead tell them it will be ok; they'll have an amazing year; it's ok if a particular friend isn't in their class as class time is for learning - they can see their friend at playtime etc.

Thank you in advance for the support I know you will show.
